Press Release

Sharon Alt to Speak at Indiana Association of Health Underwriters Mock Jury Trial Event

Alt Benefit Consultants President Slated to Present in Indy 'America's Health Care System on Trial' Event

February 22, 2008 - Alt Benefit Consultants president Sharon Alt has announced yet another stop as part of her national speaking tour. Alt will be a presenter of the 'America's Health Care System on Trial' event presented by the Indiana Association of Health Underwriters.

The mock trial event is intended to provide health insurance professionals and the general public the opportunity to discuss openly the polarizing issue of America's health care system. Sharon Alt will be presenting the event alongside Eric Johnson in an entertaining and informative take on the debate of how to fix a 'broken' healthcare system.

"I'm thrilled to be participating in such a fun and influential event," Alt Benefit Consultants president Sharon Alt said. "Events like this demonstrate how committed the benefits selling industry is to keeping an open dialogue with state and national policymakers on behalf of the consumer."

The 'America's Health Care System on Trial' event will be held February 29 at the Ritz Charles in Carmel, Indiana. More information about the event can be accessed at: www.indyahu.org. In addition to her continuing education speaking, Sharon Alt is a contributing writer for Benefits Selling magazine. To see her in action in a city near you or to request her presence at an event or meeting, please visit www.altbenefits.com.
